

PATH TO PUBLISHED

Mentoring Program with Sasha Wasley

Are you serious about getting published?

Do you have a manuscript in production or a completed draft?

Are you able to attend a weekly session on Tuesday mornings?

Then you are invited to apply for the Path to Published mentoring program being facilitated by bestselling author Sasha Wasley in Term 1, 2023.

10 WRITERS – 10 WEEKS – BACK YOURSELF!

In the P2P group, you will access weekly mentoring to make your writing the best it can be, prepare your work for pitching and get advice on your next steps.

Here's what you'll get:

- Weekly writing workshops on topics like pitching, writing a synopsis, selecting a publisher, masterly dialogue, completing your book, understanding genre and audience, approaching agents, using editors and assessors, conquering imposter syndrome and more.
- A dedicated group feedback session for your work.
- Weekly writing activities/free writing time.
- A one-on-one session with Sasha for individual advice.
- Online group membership for sharing opportunities, achievements and support.
- Permanent membership of the P2P Alumni group.

Mentoring Program with Sasha Wasley

10 WRITERS – 10 WEEKS – BACK YOURSELF!

What you need to know about applying:

The P2P program is an application-based group for a maximum of 10 writers aspiring to become published authors in any genre. Sasha will select participants for the program based on their submissions, choosing projects she feels have the greatest publication potential in the current market. Submissions will include your bio, an outline of your project and a writing sample. There is no cost to apply but if selected for the program you will be required to make payment within 10 days.
